

Western DRAP In Carlisle

Cumberland County is proud to host the 2010 Western DRAP Conference. The Conference will be held at the beautiful Comfort Suites of Carlisle on June 9, 10 & 11, 2010. Full registration is $50 and Thursday only registration is $40 (see attachment). The Comfort Suites is located at 10 South Hanover Street, Carlisle, one half block from center square in Carlisle and will provide DRAP's overnight guests with a quality room, complimentary hot breakfast and free parking. (For reservations contact the Comfort Suites directly – see attachment). For Thursday only attendees, parking at The Comfort Suites parking garage will be $.50 per hour with a $5.00 maximum.

Wednesday's activities will include a round of golf at the prestigious Mayapple Golf Course, Carlisle (see Golf Registration Attachment). For those who do not golf we have the Heritage Walk at the United States Army Heritage and Educational Center. Wednesday night will consist of informal discussions in the Hospitality Room.

Thursday's activities will include presentations on Cooperation and Communication by Derek Clepper, Esquire, PACSES Forms Redesign – Adobe Workspace by Tim Reedy; Recreational License Suspension by PACSETI; Social Security and Support by Professor Robert Rains; Understanding Welfare Screens by Jaylene Blosser, BCSE; and Review of the New State Guidelines, PACSETI. (See agenda).

Thursday night activities include the "Walk About Carlisle". We will be visiting five (5) local establishments, all within two blocks of the Comfort Suites, and taste specially prepared beverages created just for Western DRAP Attendees. The evening will conclude with informal discussions at the Hospitality Room.

Friday will conclude the conference with presentations by John Clark, OCSE; Dan Richard, BCSE; and Tom Sheaffer, BCSE. The conference will end with the prize drawing. The prizes are very good!
